

GE HealthCare reports third quarter 2025 financial results

October 29, 2025

- Revenue growth was 6% and Organic revenue growth* was 4% year-over year, driven by Europe, the Middle East and Africa (EMEA) and the U.S.
- Organic orders growth was 6% with growth across all segments
- Net income margin was 8.7%; Adjusted earnings before interest and taxes (EBIT) margin* was 14.8%
- Diluted earnings per share (EPS) were $0.98; Adjusted EPS* was $1.07
- Cash flow from operating activities was $593 million; Free cash flow* was $483 million
- Excluding tariff impacts, margin and EPS would have exceeded prior year
- Raises the lower end of full-year 2025 Adjusted EPS* guidance range and reaffirms all other metrics

CHICAGO--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Oct. 29, 2025-- GE HealthCare (Nasdaq: GEHC) today reported financial results for the third quarter ended September 30, 2025.

GE HealthCare President and CEO Peter Arduini said, "We delivered robust orders with growth across all segments in the third quarter. This was led by customer demand for our differentiated solutions and a healthy capital equipment environment. Revenue performance was driven by Imaging, Advanced Visualization Solutions, and Pharmaceutical Diagnostics, and was ahead of our expectations. We continue to see momentum with commercial execution, where our teams leverage our broad portfolio and services, creating sustainable revenue and strengthening customer relationships. As a result of our increased R&D investments, we are entering a new wave of innovation and, coupled with our focus on lean, we expect to accelerate top and bottom line growth."

Third quarter 2025 total company financial performance

- Revenues of $5.1 billion increased 6% reported and 4% on an Organic* basis year-over-year. Revenue growth was driven by strength in EMEA and the U.S.
- Total company book-to-bill was 1.06 times. Total company orders increased 6% organically year-over-year.
- Net income attributable to GE HealthCare was $446 million versus $470 million for the prior year, and Adjusted EBIT* was $761 million versus $795 million.
- Net income margin was 8.7% versus 9.7% for the prior year, down 100 basis points (bps). Adjusted EBIT margin* was 14.8% versus 16.3%, down 150 bps, with both measures impacted by tariffs, partially offset by benefits from volume and price.
- Diluted EPS was $0.98 versus $1.02, down $0.05 from the prior year. Adjusted EPS* was $1.07 versus $1.14, down $0.06 from the prior year as both measures saw an impact from tariff expense.
- Cash flow from operating activities was $593 million, down $149 million year-over-year. Free cash flow* was $483 million, down $168 million year-over-year.
- Excluding tariff impacts, margin and EPS would have exceeded prior year.

2025 guidance

Today, the Company raises lower end of full-year 2025 Adjusted EPS* guidance range and reaffirms other metrics as follows:

- Organic revenue growth* of approximately 3% year-over-year
- Adjusted EBIT margin* of 15.2% to 15.4%, reflecting a decline of 110 bps to 90 bps versus 2024 Adjusted EBIT margin* of 16.3%
- Adjusted effective tax rate (ETR)* in the range of 20% to 21%
- Adjusted EPS* in the range of $4.51 to $4.63 versus 2024 Adjusted EPS* of $4.49; this compares to previous Adjusted EPS* guidance in the range of $4.43 to $4.63
- Free cash flow* of at least $1.4 billion
- Guidance includes approximate tariff impacts of $265 million to Adjusted EBIT* and $0.45 to Adjusted EPS*

Tariff assumptions for updated guidance: Bilateral U.S. and China tariffs introduced this year continue and will rise on November 10, 2025 (to a rate of 54% for U.S. tariffs imposed on goods imported from China to the U.S. and to 34% for Chinese tariffs on goods exported from the U.S. to China); U.S. reciprocal rate on EU and Japan products (at 15%) effective August 7, 2025; tariffs increase for goods imported from Mexico (to 30%) effective October 30, 2025; tariffs on imports of products from Canada (to 35%) effective on August 1, 2025 and USMCA exemptions for eligible imports continue; U.S. reciprocal tariffs on all other impacted geographies continue as most recently enacted, including products from India (at 50%); also includes impact of enacted Section 232 tariffs on copper, steel and aluminum derivatives (at 50%).

The Company provides its outlook on a non-GAAP basis. Refer to the Non-GAAP financial measures in outlook section below for more details.

Non-GAAP financial measures

The non-GAAP financial measures presented in this press release are supplemental measures of GE HealthCare's performance and its liquidity that the Company believes will help investors understand its financial condition, cash flows, and operating results, and assess its future prospects. When read in conjunction with the Company's U.S. GAAP results, these non-GAAP financial measures provide a baseline for analyzing trends in GE HealthCare's underlying businesses and can be used by management as one basis for making financial, operational, and planning decisions. Descriptions of the reported non-GAAP measures are included below.

The Company reports Organic revenue and Organic revenue growth rate to provide management and investors with additional understanding and visibility into the underlying revenue trends of the Company's established, ongoing operations, as well as provide insights into overall demand for its products and services. To calculate these measures, the Company excludes the effect of acquisitions, dispositions, and foreign currency rate fluctuations.

The Company reports EBIT, Adjusted EBIT, Adjusted EBIT margin, Adjusted net income, and Adjusted earnings per share to provide management and investors with an additional understanding of its business by highlighting the results from ongoing operations and the underlying profitability factors, on a normalized basis. To calculate these measures the Company excludes, and reflects in the detailed reconciliations below, the following adjustments as applicable: Interest and other financial charges – net, Net (income) loss attributable to noncontrolling interests, Non-operating benefit (income) costs, Benefit (provision) for income taxes and certain tax related adjustments, and certain non-recurring and/or non-cash items. GE HealthCare may from time to time consider excluding other non-recurring items to enhance comparability between periods. Adjusted EBIT margin is calculated by taking Adjusted EBIT divided by Total revenues for the same period.

The Company reports Adjusted tax expense and Adjusted ETR to provide management and investors with a better understanding of the normalized tax rate applicable to the business and provide more consistent comparability across periods. Adjusted tax expense excludes the income tax related to the pre-tax income adjustments included as part of Adjusted net income and certain income tax adjustments, such as adjustments to deferred tax assets or liabilities. The Company may from time to time consider excluding other non-recurring tax items to enhance comparability between periods. Adjusted ETR is Adjusted tax expense divided by income before income taxes less the pre-tax income adjustments referenced above.

The Company reports Free cash flow and Free cash flow conversion to provide management and investors with an important measure of the ability to generate cash on a normalized basis and provide insight into the Company's flexibility to allocate capital. Free cash flow is Cash from (used for) operating activities – continuing operations including cash flows related to the additions and dispositions of property, plant, and equipment ("PP&E") and additions of internal-use software. Free cash flow does not represent residual cash flows available for discretionary expenditures, due to the fact that the measure does not deduct the capital required for debt repayments. Free cash flow conversion is calculated by taking Free cash flow divided by Adjusted net income.

Management recognizes that these non-GAAP financial measures have limitations, including that they may be calculated differently by other companies or may be used under different circumstances or for different purposes. In order to compensate for the discussed limitations, management does not consider these measures in isolation from or as alternatives to the comparable financial measures determined in accordance with U.S. GAAP. The detailed reconciliations of each non-GAAP financial measure to the most directly comparable U.S. GAAP financial measure are provided below, and no single financial measure should be relied on to evaluate our business.

(3) Costs incurred in the Spin-Off and separation from GE, including system implementations, audit and advisory fees, legal entity separation, Founders Grant equity awards, separation agreements with GE, and other one-time costs. An adjustment is included to eliminate the associated impact on Net (income) loss attributable to noncontrolling interests for applicable costs that impact earnings attributable to noncontrolling interests.

(4) Consists of gains and losses resulting from the sale of assets and investments.

(5) Primarily relates to valuation adjustments for equity investments and for the nine months ended September 30, 2025, includes the impact from the revaluation of our existing 50% interest in NMP as part of the acquisition transaction.

(6) The tax effect of reconciling items is calculated using the statutory tax rate, taking into consideration the nature of the items and the relevant taxing jurisdiction.

(7) Consists of certain income tax adjustments, including the release of income tax reserves in a foreign jurisdiction for tax years which are no longer subject to an assessment from the local taxing authorities, impacts from tax law changes, discrete tax impacts resulting from the Spin-Off and separation from GE, and tax impacts of the NMP acquisition.

Non-GAAP financial measures in outlook

GE HealthCare calculates forward-looking non-GAAP financial measures, including Organic revenue growth, Adjusted EBIT margin, Adjusted ETR, Adjusted EPS, and Free cash flow based on internal forecasts that omit certain amounts that would be included in GAAP financial measures. GE HealthCare does not provide reconciliations of these forward-looking non-GAAP financial measures to the respective GAAP metrics as it is unable to predict with reasonable certainty and without unreasonable effort certain items such as the impact of changes in currency exchange rates, impacts associated with business acquisitions or dispositions, timing and magnitude of restructuring activities, and revaluation of strategic investments, amongst other items. The timing and amounts of these items are uncertain and could have a substantial impact on GE HealthCare's results in accordance with GAAP.

Key performance indicators

Management uses the following metrics to provide a leading indicator of current business demand from customers for products and services.

- Organic orders growth: Rate of change period-over-period of contractual commitments with customers to provide specified goods or services for an agreed upon price, and excluding the effects of: (1) recent acquisitions and dispositions with less than a full year of comparable orders; and (2) foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations in order to present orders on a constant currency basis.
- Book-to-bill: Total orders divided by Total revenues within a given financial period (e.g., quarter or FY).
